Principal's Ink

The past few months have been a remarkable journey for our Nursing College marked by accolades, academic excellence and impactful community outreach. My recent appointment as Associate Dean is not only a recognition but also a challenging role in our constant stride towards academic excellence. In a recent interview with the Careers 360, I got the opportunity to highlight the emerging trends in Nursing education, employment opportunities and the implications of NEET for nursing aspirants as well as the institutions.

On the academic front, the 6th Infection Prevention and Control Workshop delivered expert-led sessions and our students presented innovative skill stations. The Advanced National Leadership Seminar by HAG-GAI India inspired our senior Christian students to evolve as leaders with Christian values while the Nurses Day and Fresher's celebration brought in a message of resilience and dedication.

Our students were included in a video contest by the Dermatology Department of our Hospital at the World Vitiligo Day Practitioners Conclave. Their skit, beautifully conceptualized and presented, won everyone's hearts and they bagged the first prize. Further reinforcing our public health commitment, Breastfeeding Week was observed followed by a Neuro Critical Care Rehabilitation Workshop offering hands-on learning for multidisciplinary teams.

Crowning it all, our students achieved a 100% pass results in the B.Sc. Nursing End Semester Exams- a proud reflection of our academic rigor and student dedication.

Together, all these achievements backed by a strong administrative support by our Management underscore our excellence in education and commitment to patient care!
